WIN MOSES, JR. - MAYOR

THE FOLLOWING CONDITIONS OF SALE ARE AGREED TO BY PURCHASER AND SELLER BEING THE CONDITIONS OF SALE REFERRED TO IN ITEM A (OBVERSE)

- a. If the Seller determines that the Purchaser is not an acceptable borrower, this contract shall be null and void.
- b. The check or remittance tendered herewith will not be cashed or deposited until the sale is closed, unless retained by the Seller as provided for in Condition 9.
- c. If this contract is contingent upon any provision in Item C (obverse) for HUD-insured financing, Purchaser agrees to close the loan at the maximum permissible HUD interest at the time of closing. If such financing cannot be obtained or is not available at cost determined by the Seller to be reasonable, the Seller may, but is not obligated to, close the sale by accepting the deferred payment obligation of the Purchaser in the same amount, term, and interest rate. If a deferred payment obligation is accepted by the Seller, the customary service charge will apply.
- d. It is understood that the sales price of the property set forth in Item B (obverse) is the value including closing costs established by HUD, and the Purchaser acknowledges that he was informed of the sales price before execution of this contract.
- e. If Item B (obverse) provides for payment of the "BALANCE AT CLOSING" in cash, the Seller will pay reasonable and customary, but not more than actual, costs of obtaining financing and closing costs, except that the Seller will not pay for any title evidence unless the mortgagee is governed by regulations of a governmental agency which require title evidence insuring a good and valid mortgage or the sale is closed with other than an insured mortgage. If this contract is contingent upon closing a mortgage to be insured by HUD, payment will be disbursed in such closing. If contingent upon closing a loan to be guaranteed by VA, or if no contingency as to financing is stated in Item C (obverse), payment will be by credit to the Purchaser in the closing accounting.
1. If closed pursuant to c. above, or if Item B (obverse) as originally written provides for payment of the "BALANCE AT CLOSING" by part cash and the remainder by mortgage (or deed of trust, etc.), or installment contract to the Seller, the Seller will pay reasonable and customary, but not more than actual closing costs, excluding any expense for examination or continuation of title required by the Purchaser.
2. If the sale is on terms other than cash, the Purchaser agrees to pay sufficient money for the Seller to properly establish escrow accounts necessary to cover taxes; assessments; ground rents, if any; and property (fire and extended coverage) insurance required by him, and to furnish property insurance policies in amounts satisfactory to the Seller with loss-payable clauses in favor of the Seller, his successors or assigns, said policies to be delivered at closing to the Seller, together with receipts for the payment of the first premium, and to be effective as of the closing date.
3. Irrespective of the terms of sale, conveyance will be by deed containing a covenant which warrants against the acts of the Seller and all claiming by, through, or under him conveying good merchantable title to said real estate, said deed to be delivered simultaneously with the execution and delivery to the Seller of a mortgage or deed of trust, and note, covering the balance of the purchase price, or cash in the amount stipulated in Item B (obverse); and, in the event of sale under an installment contract, said contract will provide for delivery of such deed and the necessary instruments. If the sale is on terms other than cash, the security instrument will contain a provision whereby the Purchaser agrees to pay a monthly charge (in lieu of a mortgage insurance premium) not in excess of that set for mortgage insurance premiums, as long as the security instrument is held by the Seller, or mortgage insurance premiums should such security instrument later be sold and insured by the Seller.
4. The Seller will prepare the deed, and if closing is by deferred payment obligation to the Seller, will also prepare the necessary legal instruments. If the total purchase price is paid in cash, all title evidence will be released to the Purchaser, otherwise the title evidence will be made available to the Purchaser for examination, will be returned to the Seller at closing, will remain with the holder of the deferred payment obligation, and will be released to the obligor when the obligation is paid in full. In all sales providing for a deferred payment obligation to the Seller, the title evidence to be made available to the Purchaser will be only that delivered to the Seller when the property was conveyed to the Seller.
5. Should the Purchaser make valid objection to the title prior to the closing of the sale and the Seller be unable or unwilling to remove or comply with such objection, or should the Seller be unable to deliver the property vacant if so stipulated herein, the Seller may at any time rescind this agreement of sale, in which event he will return the earnest money deposited by the Purchaser. The return of the earnest money, or the tender of same, shall release the Seller from any and all claims arising from this transaction.
6. In the event the property herein described has not been acquired and the title thereto approved by the Seller, then this agreement is contingent upon such acquisition and approval of title by the Seller.
7. No member of or Delegate to Congress, or Resident Commissioner, shall be admitted to any share or part of this contract or to any benefit that may arise therefrom, but this provision shall not be construed to extend to this contract if made with a corporation for its general benefit.
8. The Purchaser warrants that no person or agency has been employed or retained to solicit or secure this contract upon an agreement or understanding for a commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee, excepting bona fide employees or bona fide established commercial agencies maintained by the Purchaser for the purpose of securing business. For breach or violation of this warranty, the Government shall have the right to annul this contract without liability or in its discretion to require the Purchaser to pay, in addition to the contract price or consideration, the full amount of such commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee.
9. Should the Purchaser fail or refuse to perform his part of this contract promptly, at the time or in the manner herein specified, the Deposit acknowledged hereby, at the option of the Seller, may be retained by the Seller as compensation for damages and expenses he has been put to or as liquidated damages.
10. The principals to this contract mutually agree that it shall be binding upon their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors, or assigns, but is assignable only by written consent of the parties hereto.
11. (a) The Seller will correct any structural defect in the dwelling or defects in its heating or central cooling, plumbing, and electrical systems (excluding ranges, refrigerators, window-type air conditioners, ventilating fans, laundry washers and dryers, dishwashers and waste disposers) which occurs within one (1) year after the sale closing, provided the Purchaser, upon discovery of such defect, promptly notifies the Seller in writing. Written notification will not be required for emergency repairs which, if not corrected, will affect the habitability of the dwelling or the safety and health of the occupants, or repairs which, if not immediately corrected, would result in damage to the dwelling. (b) The Seller will correct any operating defect in the ranges, refrigerators, window-type air conditioners, ventilating fans laundry washers and dryers, dishwashers and waste disposers which occurs within fifteen (15) days after the sale closing, provided the Purchaser, upon discovery of such defect, promptly notifies the Seller in writing. The warranty will not apply to new equipment for which the purchaser has been furnished the manufacturer's warranty. (c) Seller agrees to bear the reasonable expense for corrections at his sole discretion. Seller's determination as to the reasonableness of the amount to be expended for, the necessity for, or the method used in performing corrections shall be final and conclusive. Seller's liability, if any, under this paragraph shall be limited solely to correction of defects for which the Seller is willing to assume liability hereunder. Under no circumstances shall this paragraph 11 subject the Seller to liability for injury or damage to persons or property by reason of a defect in the dwelling, its equipment, or its appurtenances; nor shall the undertakings of this paragraph extend to any party other than the Purchaser and his bona fide vendee of the property to whom Purchaser shall have assigned his rights hereunder.
12. Risk of loss or damage by fire or other casualty is assumed by the Seller until the sales transaction is closed. If the property is damaged by fire or other casualty prior to the date of closing, the Seller reserves the right to terminate this contract on returning to the Purchaser all deposits received by the Seller.
13. This contract contains the final and entire agreement between the parties hereto and they shall not be bound by any terms, conditions, statements, or representations, oral or written, not herein contained.
